Overview

Colin is senior counsel and has practiced law at Cades Schutte for over 40 years, primarily in the Intellectual Property, Construction Law and Litigation, and Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Practice Groups.

His practice concentrates on commercial and general business litigation, including litigation of trademark, copyright, and patent disputes, lender liability claims, and arbitration of construction delay and defect claims.

Colin has represented individual business owners as well as large local and national companies in Hawai'i state and federal trial and appellate courts, and in administrative trials and proceedings before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He has successfully prosecuted and defended against claims of patent, trademark, and copyright infringement, and has obtained and in other cases, defeated emergency relief and orders enjoining infringement of intellectual property rights in courts located both in Hawai'i and on the mainland. Colin has also had significant commercial litigation and arbitration experience, including jury trials on O'ahu and the outer islands.

Colin is an active member of the American Judicature Society (AJS) and a recipient of the 2021 AJS Special Merit Citation. He has served on the AJS Board of Directors since 2009 and actively participates on several of its committees. He has been ranked in Super Lawyers and as an IP Star in patent and trademark litigation.

In his spare time, Colin has been actively engaged in service to his profession and community. He has served on the Board of Directors of Diamond Head Theatre (DHT) since 2015, and is currently the Chair and was Chair of the Facilities Committee working on the construction of DHT's new theatre. Colin also served as the Lawyer Representative for the Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference and as a member of the Hawaii Judiciary's Permanent Committee on the Rules of Civil Procedure and Circuit Court Civil Rules.
